Hisham Ghassib

- Born in Amman in 1950.
- Graduated from the Bishop's School in Amman in 1967.
- Obtained his B.Sc. (Hon.) in Physics from Leeds Univ. (UK) in 1972.
- Obtained his Ph.D. in Theoretical Physics from Leeds Univ. in 1976.
- Worked at the Royal Scientific Society as Head of the Science Popularization Dept. (1976 – 1991).
- Worked at Princess Sumaya Univ. College for Technology as Head of the Sciences and Humanities Dept. and Associate Professor in Physics (1991 – 1999).
- Appointed Full Professor in Physics and Dean of the College in 1999.
- Appointed President of Princess Sumaya University for Technology (PSUT) in February 2003, and remained PSUT president till 19.9.2010.
- He has written a large number of books and papers in Physics and Philosophy.
- He has established and edited a large number of scientific and cultural magazines.
- He has won two national cultural prizes.