4. Final provisions

The Parties consider this MOU to be rather a declaration of intent than a legally binding document on joint activities. They also proceed from the fact that nothing herein, therefore, shall diminish the full authority of either Party. In all cases this MOU is applicable only in part where it does not contradict national legislation and local documents.

This MOU comes into force from the signing date of the MOU and remains in force for a period of five years. Either Party may terminate this MOU by giving at least six months advance written notice to the other Party.

This MOU may be extended by written consent of both Parties for a further specified period.

This MOU is made in the English, English, Russian and Arabic language in two copies being equally authentic,
