

Memorandum of Understanding

on Academic Cooperation between

The University of Jordan

and

Kazan National Research Technological University

First party: The University of Jordan, Amman, 11942, Jordan, represented by its President.

Second party: Kazan National Research Technological University, Kazan, Russia, represented by its Vice Rector.

Whereas the two parties desire to develop academic cooperation in various fields, the two parties conclude this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) and agree to the following:

Article 1- To develop the following collaborative activities in academic areas of mutual interest:

1. Exchange of faculty and researchers for purposes of teaching, conducting lectures, conducting research, and exchange of expertise.
2. Exchange of students subject to terms to be outlined in a separate Student Exchange Agreement.
3. Conducting collaborative research projects.
4. Jointly organize symposia, seminars, and conferences.
5. Exchange of academic information and materials.

Article 2- The development and implementation of specific activities based on this MoU will be separately negotiated and agreed between the faculties, or institutes, which carry out the specific projects. Both parties agree to carry out these activities in accordance with the laws and regulations of both countries.

Article 3- It is understood that the implementation of any of the types of cooperation stated in Article 1 shall depend upon the availability of resources and financial support at both parties.

Article 4- Should any collaborative research activities under this MoU result in any potential for intellectual property, both parties shall seek a fair understanding as to ownership and other property interests that may arise.

Article 5- This MoU may be amended or modified by written agreements signed by the representatives of both parties, and will become part of this MoU.
