AGREEMENT ON STUDENT EXCHANGE

between
The University of Jordan, Jordan
and
Lund University, Sweden

This Agreement is entered into by and between The University of Jordan (UJ), located in Amman, Jordan, and Lund University (LU), located in Lund, Sweden.

1 Definitions
The following definitions will be used in this Agreement:
- Contracting parties: The University of Jordan and Lund University.
- Home Institution: The contracting partner that has agreed to send the exchange student.
- Host Institution: The contracting partner that has agreed to receive the exchange student.
- Exchange students: The students of both institutions involved in the exchange according to this Agreement.
- First Cycle: Undergraduate degree.
- Second Cycle: Master's degree.

2 Objectives
The purpose of the Agreement is to establish the terms and conditions under which the exchange of students between UJ and LU shall take place. The terms and conditions of the Agreement apply to both first and second cycle students. Admission of candidates to study at UJ and LU will be at the discretion of the Host Institution.

3 Numbers of Students
Each year during the term of this Agreement, each Institution may send up to five (5) students for two semesters or ten (10) students for one semester to be registered as exchange students at the other institution. The number of students may be modified from time to time by mutual agreement. It is understood that a balance in number of students exchanged shall be sought over a five year period.

The obligations of the institutions under this Agreement apply only to the exchange students, and exclude both spouses and dependents.

4 Pre-requisites for Participation
The Home Institutions will screen and select applicants for exchange on the basis of the following criteria which shall generally apply but may be waived in special cases.
- Exchange students must have a good to excellent academic record.
- Exchange students must be registered as full-time first cycle or second cycle students of the Home Institution.
- First cycle exchange students from UJ must have successfully completed at least 36 credit hours while second cycle students must have successfully completed at least 6 credit hours. Exchange students from LU must have successfully completed two semesters of study. Exchange students from both institutions must remain registered in the Home Institution during their exchange period.

- The exchange students must be able to follow the lectures in the language of instruction. The Home Institution will evaluate the language aptitude of its own students.

5 Selection and Nomination
The candidates of both institutions will use the required application form of the Host Institution.

Exchange students should be selected on the basis of merit without regard to race, national or ethnic origin, color, religion, age, sex, marital status or physical handicap.

The Host Institution will accept the candidates selected by the Home Institution if mutually acceptable academic and/or professional qualifications and standards are met. However, the Host Institution will make the final decision on the admission of candidates nominated for exchange.

6 Responsibilities of the Exchange Student
The exchange students will be responsible for:

- Paying their Home Institution tuition and fees prior to participation.
- Paying room and board expenses at the Host Institution.
- Paying for transportation to the Host Institution and within the Host country.
- Obtaining medical insurance and paying for expenses in excess of medical coverage.
- Personal expenses including materials.
- Obtaining and paying fees for an appropriate visa.
- All other debts incurred during the period of the exchange.
- Filling in an evaluation report after the study abroad period at the Host and Home institutions.
- Following the rules and regulations of the Host Institution in which they are enrolled.

The contracting Parties will inform its participating Exchange students of the above mentioned responsibilities of the participating Exchange Students.

7 Program of Study
The program is intended as an Institution-wide student exchange program including all faculties, departments, institutes, and centers. The exchange students may apply to any academic courses offered at the Host Institution as full time, non-degree students at a level determined by the Host Institution.

- The Host Institution will endeavor to ensure that students are admitted to courses with the desired priority as applied. However, admission to a specific department or course is subject to the student being satisfactorily qualified for the chosen area of study and/or course level, and the availability of places in the courses.

- Exchange students will be subject to the academic requirements and rules of conduct of the Host Institution. All students are required to be registered in a full-time course of study or equivalent amount of credits. At UJ, 12 credits for first cycle and 6 credits for second cycle students per semester/term are considered as full-time course load. At LU, 30 credits per semester are considered as full-time studies. Accreditation for the work carried out by a student during the period of the exchange will be at the discretion of the student’s Home Institution.

- The Host Institution will provide the Home Institution with a final transcript, describing the student’s academic performance at no cost for the Exchange Student or the Home University.

8 Length of Study
Exchange students will spend a minimum of one semester/term, and a maximum of two semesters at the Host Institution. Shorter exchange periods may be approved if part of internships, practical training, or field work.

Upon completion of the period of study at the Host Institution, exchange students must return to the Home Institution.

9 Fees and Expenses
Exchange students will continue to pay tuition fees at their Home Institution according to its own regulations. LU will exempt UJ’s incoming exchange students from paying LU tuition, academic, course or other fees. UJ will use tuition and fees paid by its outgoing exchange students to cover the tuition and fees of the incoming LU exchange students. A small sum levied for student activities may however be allowed. All other expenses incurred will remain the responsibility of the exchange student.

10 Responsibilities of the Home and Host Institutions
Contracting parties shall have the option of terminating the participation of a student should that student violate the laws or regulations of the Host Institution, or be found by a competent authority to have violated the laws of the host country.

Contracting parties will endeavor to provide a pre-arrival orientation to students admitted to the exchange program. The Host Institution will arrange an orientation program for the exchange students upon arrival.

Applications for participation in the Exchange Program will be sent by the Home Institution to the Host Institution at least three (3) months before the start of the academic year/semester/term in which the exchange will take place.

Returning students will be asked to complete a report form evaluating their exchange.

The Host Institution shall make every reasonable effort to assist students participating under the terms of this Agreement in finding suitable accommodation.
11 Recognition for Participation
Any academic credit earned at the Host Institution by the participant may be transferred back to the Home Institution in accordance with procedures determined by the latter.

12 Liability
Each Contracting Party shall be independently liable for any loss, damage or injury to third parties resulting from the performance of the said Contracting Party’s obligations by it or on its behalf under this Agreement. A Contracting Party shall not be responsible to the other Contracting Party for any punitive or special damages, indirect or consequential loss or damages or similar, such as, but not limited to, loss of profit, loss of revenue or loss of contracts, unless caused by gross negligence or a willful act.

13 Use of Logos and Trademarks
Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring rights to use in advertising, publicity or otherwise the name of the Contracting Parties or any of their logos, trademarks or similar without prior written approval.

14 Coordination and Administration of the Exchange
The management of the exchange will be the responsibility of the Office of International Relations at The University of Jordan, and the External Relations at Lund University.

15 Commencement of Exchange
Enrollment of students according to this Agreement will commence in the first possible semester/term after signing the Agreement.

16 Review, Renewal, Termination
The contracting parties will review the Agreement annually to maintain a well-balanced exchange. Every effort will be made to achieve parity over a period of five years. This Agreement will be valid from the date of the last signature and may be terminated by giving six months’ notice in writing. Without any notice of termination, the Agreement will be terminated five years from the date of last signature. However, any exchange in place will be permitted to continue to completion date. At the end of that period of five years, the Agreement could be renewed by exchange of letters.

Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, which cannot be resolved between program directors or other designated representatives, will promptly be referred to the President of the University of Jordan, or designee, and the Vice-Chancellor of LU, or designee, who will address these matters in negotiations and come to a binding agreement between the Contracting Parties.
This Agreement is written in English, in two originals, both of equal validity.
