

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING*on Academic Cooperation*between*The University of Jordan*and*Philipps-Universität Marburg

First party: The University of Jordan, Amman, 11942, Jordan, represented by its President or designated officer.

Second party: Philipps-Universität Marburg, 35032 Marburg, represented by its president or designated officer.

Whereas the two parties desire to develop academic cooperation in various fields, the two parties conclude this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) and agree to the following:

Article 1- To develop the following collaborative activities in academic areas of mutual interest:

1. Exchange of faculty and researchers for purposes of teaching, conducting lectures, conducting research, and exchange of expertise.
2. Exchange of students subject to terms to be outlined in a separate Student Exchange Agreement.
3. Conducting collaborative research projects.
4. Jointly organize symposia, seminars, and conferences.
5. Exchange of academic information and materials.

Article 2- The development and implementation of specific activities based on this MoU will be separately negotiated and agreed between the faculties, or institutes, which carry out the specific projects. Both parties agree to carry out these activities in accordance with the laws and regulations of both countries.

Article 3- It is understood that the implementation of any of the types of cooperation stated in article 1 shall depend upon the availability of resources and financial support at both parties.
